

We are the Cincinnati based "Garment-Wearable Art Sewing Club".

Our Reason to Exist:

We exist to learn from one another, and our focus is on garment-wearable art craftsmanship.

1. We will include both community service and social fellowship activities. However, these are secondary to our main focus of skill and learning in the area of garments and wearable art.
2. Members will willingly share their skills and knowledge with one another.

Membership: Open to anyone. All attendees pay a $1 participation fee, per person, per meeting, regardless of ASG membership status. This covers cost of copies, supplies (name tags), etc. Note that several members also belong to ASG, the American Sewing Guild. However, this is not a requirement or expectation. We are an independent club and not governed or associated with ASG.

Meeting Time and Place: The fourth Tuesday evening of every month, 7- 9p, at Kramer's Sew & Vac, 9907 Montgomery Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45242

- * to stimulate interest in quilt making.

OVQG offers a variety of programs and workshops featuring local and nationally known quilters, with the intention of sharing quilting techniques and creative approaches in the design and creation of quilts. In addition to the 250+ member Guild, we also have smaller neighborhood sewing groups that meet in various locations in the area. We offer 2 retreats locally, open to all members. Our members range from beginners to those with many years of experience, and include several award-winning quilters.

Visitors are always welcome. Visits are usually free, however there may be a slight charge for some programs. Visitors may attend two meetings prior to being requested to join to help support the Guild. New members are welcome, and may join at any time throughout the year.
